

Côtes du Rhône rouge 2020

CHÂTEAU D'AIGUEVILLE

Between hillslopes, pine tree forests, olive trees and garrigues, the Château d'Aigueville vineyard have a privileged place in the heart of the Rhône valley. Certified organic, the vines are planted on clay-limestone soils covered with pebbles. The vineyard is full of biodiversity and the soils are alive.

Appellation: Côtes du Rhône

Region: The Massif d'Uchaux is located at the north of Orange. It is an undulating Landscape going from 100 to 250 m from the sea level.

Soils: Red clays and sandstone

Grape varieties : 60 % Grenache, 30 % Syrah et 10 % Carignan/Mourvèdre

Average age of vines: 40 years old

Aging: 100% concrete vats

Operating temperature: 14-16°C

Ageing potential: 10-15 years

Dégustation

Color: Ruby red

Nose: Black fruits (blueberry, blackberry), garrigues (thyme, rosemary) and blood orange

Mouth: Balance and drinkability. Aromas of red fruits, black fruits and garrigues

This wine will perfectly match with red meat grilled, lamb and pork.

Romain Damiano
Directeur Général & technique
romain.damiano@aigueville.com
06 60 23 98 29

Route de Sérignan, D43
84100 Uchaux

